Free Images & Pictures: Photos for Class

Photos for Class

<https://www.photosforclass.com/>

Looking for a place to download safe images for use in the classroom and other educational projects? Need accurate image citations? Then Photos for Class is the website you've been looking for! Thanks to Photos for Class filters and its use of Flickr Safe Search, all images are appropriate for school settings, and licensed by Creative Commons for public use. Plus, downloaded images automatically cite the author and the image license terms. Not only is this a powerful resource for images, but it can serve as a great tool for teaching students how to cite online products. Appropriate for all grade levels.

Pics4Learning is a safe, free image library for schools. Teachers and students can use the copyright-friendly photos and images for classrooms, multimedia projects, web sites, videos, portfolios, or any other project in an educational setting. The Pics4Learning collection is intended to provide copyright friendly images for use by students and teachers in an educational setting. The original photographers of each image retain the copyright to these images and have graciously allowed their use in this collection. Images in the Pics4Learning collection may be used by teachers and students in print, multimedia, and video productions. These could include, but are not limited to, school projects, contests, web pages, and fund raising activities for the express purpose of improving student educational opportunities. The images may not be sold as an image collection or partial image collection. Images cannot be used for commercial production without permission. This includes projects being sold on sites that market teacher produced products to other teachers.

The Pixabay logo consists of the word "pixabay" in a lowercase, sans-serif font, with "pixa" in grey and "bay" in orange. It is enclosed in a white rounded rectangle with a grey border.
